NIKKO ASSET MANAGEMENT CO., LTD.

The Nikko AM Global Equity Strategy: a decade of outperformance fuelled by Future Quality

Nikko Asset Management (“Nikko AM”) celebrates the 10th anniversary of the Nikko AM Global Equity Strategy, launched on 1 October 2014. Since its inception, the strategy has delivered a gross annualized return of 12.47%, compared to 9.24% for the benchmark MSCI ACWI Net Total Return Index¹. The strategy holds 40 – 50 Future Quality companies within the portfolio and has maintained persistent first quartile risk adjusted returns since inception.

“Over the past decade since our Global Equity team joined Nikko AM, we have collectively delivered strong investment returns and alpha for our clients. Our founding team members in 2014 (Greig Bryson, Iain Fulton, Johnny Russell, James Kinghorn, William Low, and Lisa Edmundson) are proud of our team-based approach and commitment to the Future Quality investment philosophy they put in place, which have been key to navigating a decade of incredible change,” the Nikko AM Global Equity team said. “It has been rewarding for us to see the growth in our team. We appreciate the contributions of all the team members who have joined us along the way and played an important role in providing returns for our clients. As we look ahead, we remain dedicated to identifying Future Quality companies that can attain and sustain high returns on investment for our clients.”

The team has achieved success for clients worldwide with their focus on Future Quality investing, with assets under management growing from a modest start of approximately USD 250 million in 2014 to over USD 5 billion today². In addition to segregated mandates for institutional clients, the Global Equity team manages the Nikko AM Global Equity UCITS Fund with a total fund size of USD 919 million³.

“Over the past decade at Nikko AM, we have developed our Future Quality franchise, expanding to 15 employees based in Edinburgh and serving a global client base. This growth has created exciting career opportunities for our talented team members. While it’s not in our nature to highlight our achievements, this milestone at Nikko AM is significant. Originally formed as a team in 2011 and joining Nikko AM in 2014, we are truly proud of the culture and team ethos we’ve maintained and nurtured around Future Quality investing,” said William Low, Portfolio Manager and Head of Global Equity.

The Edinburgh-based team focuses exclusively on identifying companies capable of growing, attaining, and sustaining high returns on invested capital over the long term. This Future Quality philosophy has supported client returns over the past decade and will continue to guide the team for the coming decade and beyond.
